ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF
INGLEWOOD EDUCATIONAL FOUNDATION

One: The name of the corporation is: Inglewood Educational Foundation ("Corporation").

Two: The Corporation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation and is not organized for the private gain of any person. It is organized and operated under the Nonprofit Public Benefit Corporation Law for charitable purposes. The general purposes for which the Corporation is organized and operated are exclusively charitable and educational within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Code) ("Code"). The specific purpose of the Corporation is to improve the education of students within the Inglewood Unified School District by providing supplemental financial support for the educational purposes of the Inglewood Unified School District.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any activity not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Code Section 501(c)(3) or by a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Code Section 170(c)(2).

Three: The name and address of the Corporation's initial agent for service of process is Andrea Bobbitt, 401 South Inglewood Avenue, Inglewood, California 90301.

Four: The Corporation may admit persons to membership, but subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the bylaws of the Corporation.

Five: (a) No part of the net earnings, income, gains, profits, funds or property of the Corporation, in whatsoever manner acquired by it, shall at any time, including but not limited to the time of the dissolution of the Corporation, inure to or be distributed for the benefit of any private person or individual or any member, officer or director of the Corporation, but the same shall be devoted solely to the purposes for which the Corporation is formed as the same are hereinabove set forth.

(b) No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation is or shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation does not, nor shall it, participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statement) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

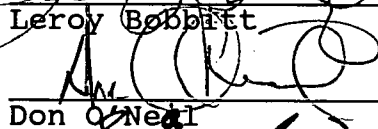

Six: The property of the Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to charitable and educational purposes. The educational purposes contained in this Article Six are limited to those meeting the requirements for a welfare exemption under Section 214 of the California Revenue and Taxation Code (or the corresponding provision of any future California statute). Upon the dissolution or winding-up of the affairs of the Corporation, after paying or adequately providing for the payment of the Corporation's debts and expenses, the Corporation's assets shall be distributed to one or more organizations which are organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes and which then shall be tax-exempt organizations under Code Sections 501(c)(3) and 170(b)(1)(A) as shall be selected by the board of directors of the Corporation.

For purposes of forming the Corporation under the laws of the State of California, the undersigned incorporators have executed these Articles of Incorporation on April 27, 1998.
